

Nineteen Cents Cotton

Sounds Good to the People of Laurens County

MINTER COMPANY'S STORE

Is Filled with Goods Bought on a Basis of 11 and 12 cents Cotton

Never before have we seen such a sensational rise in the price of cotton, in which we all rejoice; but it is good news that we tell you. We have so many goods that we are selling today at and below factory prices. Our advice to the trade is to supply your needs not only for the present but also for next spring. We are busy every day, but can always wait on a few more customers. Come to Minter Co.--the busy store.
